Woodrow Wilson Is President

New York, Nov. 6.—With the election of Woodrow Wilson to the presidency and Theodor R. Marshall to the vice presidency tonight, the reports up to midnight gave indications that the electorate vote of the democratic candidate would pass the 300 mark. The size of the popular majority given the democratic national ticket or the states outside of Illinois that might give electoral votes to either Taft or Roosevelt were matters of conjecture at midnight. It was certain, however, that Illinois would give an overwhelming majority to Roosevelt; while the race in Pennsylvania was so close as to bring all three candidates within the range of success.

Early returns gave Wilson and Marshall "The Soil South," and the states of Connecticut, Delaware, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New York, West Va., Indiana and Missouri. As the night advanced and the returns from the west began to come in those earlier estimates were confirmed, and Montana, N. D., and New Mexico were added those that seemed certain for the democratic candidates while scattering returns from San Francisco and Los Angeles made it probable that Calif. might join the Wilson majority.

Rhode Island, also a doubtful state, in returns near midnight and based on the later votes reported, it seemed not wholly improbable that its five electoral votes would go to Wilson. Early returns of victory to Taft in New Hampshire and Vermont were made, but the Taft pluralities dwindled as midnight approached, to a very few hundred votes in each state and seemed likely to be wiped out entirely.

The vote in Utah, as reflected in the despatches up to midnight, gave indications that the state might be carried for Taft. The vote in Pennsylvania was amazingly close, the returns from over a hundred precincts embracing over 185,000 votes giving each of the three leading presidential candidates more than 60,000 votes.

President Taft's lead in Philadelphia districts was offset by the heavy vote polled by Roosevelt and Wilson in other parts of the state.

Many surprises were shown in the returns. The New York state assembly seemed to be overwhelmingly democratic. In Illinois indications were Judge Dunn, the democratic candidate for Governor has won, notwithstanding the heavy Roosevelt plurality. Former Speaker Cannon seemed to have been defeated of re-election to congress in Illinois.

In addition to certain Roosevelt victory in Illinois the confidential claims of Roosevelt managers that Iowa, Michigan and Kansas would fall into the Roosevelt column seemed verified by the partially complete returns at an early hour this morning (Wednesday) the returns from California were meagre but left the state in doubt between Wilson and Roosevelt.

The uncertainty of Vermont was settled by the announcement of complete vote having given a majority.

At 12.45 o'clock Wednesday, the Providence Journal conceded that state to Wilson with the close vote in New Hampshire it seemed probable that New England entire with the exception of Vermont had gone over to the democratic column.

New York, Nov. 6.—Shortly after 11 o'clock tonight Democratic national headquarters claimed the following states as certain for Wilson; Alabama, Arkansas, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Indiana, Kentucky, North Carolina, Maryland, Massachusetts, Missis-

Hockey Club Reorganized

A meeting of those interested in hockey was held at the council chamber on Wednesday night, for the purpose of arranging for the work of the coming season.

The chair was occupied by Mayor Lyon.

By a vote it was decided to reorganize the club under the same name and style as last year—the Blairmore hockey club.

The following officials were then appointed:
President, H. E. Lyon.
Vice-President, Thomas Frayer.

Secretary-Treasurer, Clarence Lewis.
Manager, J. R. Irwin.

The appointing of a captain was left for the team.

The proprietors of the rink were present and offered very reasonable terms for this winter's programme.

It was decided to join the Crows' Nest Pass Hockey League, and a delegation comprising Messrs. Douglas, Lyon and others were appointed to attend a meeting of the league when called upon.

The club membership fee was fixed at $2.00 same as last year.

The following were enlisted as members of the club: H. B. Benson, B. MacDougall, Jas. R. Irwin, R. B. Bartlett, Jos. Montalbelli, A. Ford, F. W. Donbt, A. H. Baker, C. Lewis D. Lewis, A. McKay, W. Goddard, W. A. Malcolm, L. C. Giles, A. W. Robbins, M. B. Dawson, J. A. McDonald, W. J. Bartlett, W. Turner, H. E. Lyon, H. G. Bigelow and R. Douglas.

Blairmore has some good material this season, and judging by the amount of interest manifested at present, she intends to carry off some laurels.

A Cold Wave Is Coming

A temperature of thirty degrees below zero is pretty cold weather, but even colder than that is promised in this city soon. More than ten times 30 below will be the temperature in the tank that contains Liquid Air which Prof. Patty will use for experiment next Thursday night at the Coleman opera house. Liquid Air is one of the most paradoxical substances known—a liquid looking and flowing like water, but absolutely dry, 312 degrees below zero, yet produced heat $500 above zero; in almost the same space and at the same period of time. It boils on ice, steel melts in it, alcohol solidifies in it, tin, iron and rubber are made brittle, and quicksilver is made hard as steel. These, and many other experiments will be performed.

Mr. Patty brings specimens of the new mineral, Radium, also wireless telegraph apparatus, and will give a demonstration of these wonderful subjects. It is very seldom that an attraction comes endorsed half so emphatically as in this novel and instructive trio of wonders.

Mississippi, Wisconsin, New York, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Missouri, West Virginia and New Jersey with a total of 291 electoral votes.

An Admirable Burglar

That's done it! muttered the burglar, as his shin came in contact with a chair and overturned it. And he spoke the truth. It did do it. A sudden movement above, a hurried descent of stairs, and lo! the burglar himself staring into a revolver.

Now, then, hands up! cried the householder. What have you stolen? Only your wife's pet dog, replied the burglar.

If that's all, you may sneak out quietly, said the householder. But you've got something besides that, you nasal.

Only your mother-in-law's parrot. You don't say so? Here's some loose change for you. Anything else?

Yes, said the burglar. Your daughter's phonograph. Good fellow! exclaimed the householder. Here's a sovereign for you. And your son's punching bag. My dear sir, exclaimed the householder, delightedly. I only wish you could manage the grand piano, then I should have peace in my house at last! Still, of course, that can't be but will you share a bottle of champagne with me before you go?

A Charming Hostess

Jones, the town wit, was keeping the dinner party in a state of continual merriment. His tongue, however, was sharp, and his repeated verbal sallies at the quality of the food finally determined his hostess on revenge. Her opportunity presented itself soon when Jones, holding up a morsel of chicken on his fork, exclaimed: Is this pie?

At which end of the fork, Mr. Jones? asked his hostess sweetly in reply.

ONTARIO WOMAN'S FORTUNE

Freed From That Weak, Languid, Always Tired Feeling, by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Thessalon, Ont.—"I cannot speak too highly of your medicine. When my appetite is poor and I have that weak, languid, always tired feeling, I get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound, and a few days' use builds me up, gives me strength, and restores me to perfect health again. It is truly a blessing to women, and I cannot speak highly enough of it. I take pleasure in recommending it to others."

Mrs. ANNIE CAMERON, Thessalon, Ont.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

There are probably hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over 30 years ago by a woman to relieve women's suffering. If you are sick and need such a medicine, why don't you try it?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be speeded, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

OLD-FASHIONED PROPOSALS

Why Popping the Question Has Fallen into Disuse

There are many kinds of proposals, for very likely no two men pop the question in the same way. After all, a girl does not, perhaps, mind much what form a proposal for her hand and heart takes, so long as it is actually made. Still, some men propose in such a way that no self-respecting girl could accept.

For example, there is the man who seems to be conferring an honor. He puts it in this way:

"I'm willing to marry you—quite taken a fancy to you! You exactly suit me. Now surely you cannot refuse such an offer as this?"

Under the circumstances, a girl is liable to argue: Does he think he is doing me a favor? Am not I fit to marry any man, being fit every way respectable? And she may not only take it very badly, but may quite cool off, and the man is intensely surprised and annoyed. Often, if a man, when proposing, adopts a patronizing style, he is quite likely to be refused.

Then there is the man who writes a bald epistle, telling of his love, his admiration, and his fervent hopes that the girl will condescend to confer upon him her hand and heart.

His poor, delicate creature, no girl could be bothered with such a man, if man he can be called.

He is afraid to face the girl? Is she such an ogre as all that? Why the written proposal is usually better than the insult, and any spirited girl should know how to deal with the writer of such an epistle.

The fact is, as we will all agree, he ought to do it in a sensible, manly way.

It may be that a proposal is a rather delicate matter, but if a man loves a woman, and knows that she loves him, what is to prevent him putting a simple question to her?

Men who propose are extremely well acquainted with the girls. Where's the difficulty, then, of calmly asking them if they will marry?

For, after all, why should it happen that, although Jack has known Beatie for four years, and has for three of them walked her out and generally paid court to her, when it comes to putting the fatal question he is all of a tremor, and hardly knows what he is saying?

Now, the moment of proposal is a time when calmness and coolness should prevail; the girl must not be flustered and half-scared by foolish ravings and idiotic pleadings and implorings. If a man but quietly and calmly puts the matter before the girl, he need have no fear of her answer.

The truth is, that nowadays a proposal is hardly ever necessary; the true proposal is rapidly becoming a thing of the past. A man walks out with a young woman, he visits regularly at her house; he winks at her steadily, for a couple of years.

The man knows what he wants—namely, the girl. She knows what he wants quite well, too. Why, then, humbug with a proposal? People nowadays drift into the engaged condition. Never a word is said as to marriage; both parties "me" and "lo, and behold! one fine day the pair find themselves talking about such and such a thing taking place "after we're married." No bother, you see; no fuss. A mere matter of course. Surely that is a better method; surely a formal proposal is quite unnecessary? It indeed, seems very silly, and to say the least of it, very superfluous.

No doubt there are girls who are slow to give their consent, but they would never dream of drifting into the engaged state without the actual question being asked. These girls are in the minority. Most girls in these days are quick and have more common-sense. Really, I believe few girls are asked in our day—why should they be? Marriage follows courtship as a natural result. If a couple court for years—well, consider the utter folly of a proposal made at the end of the courtship.

The proposal is getting old-fashioned; it will never regain its former place. It is well, it is a very stupid affair altogether as perhaps you'll agree.

Living on Eggshells

Hens may soon be worth their weight in gold, for science has discovered that in their familiar daily product lie the makings of a perfect human race.

Science in this instance is represented by Professor Emmerich, of Munich, the famous specialist in diphtheria and cholera, and his colleague, Professor Loewe.

They declare that the barnyard fowl is one of the greatest benefactors of mankind, not merely because she lays the popular breakfast egg, but because that egg is contained in a shell.

These scientists then go on to say that eggshells taken in proper form, lengthen human vitality, increase the power of resistance against the withering blight of time, add vigor to the body, activity to the brain, and strength to the heart, destroy injurious bacilli, prevent inflammation and disease and lend courage and energy to the human being.

Therefore they advise all of us to eat eggshells if we want to be healthy and happy and to live long. Of course, in recommending this diet of eggshells, the gifted savants do not mean to be taken too literally. They have prepared a liquid which they call a chloride of eggshells.

And, like most modern scientists, they have been scientifically attributed to communicate their formula to the entire medical fraternity, together with simple instructions for the use of the chloride he taken three times a day in water. The dose is said to be one teaspoonful, if it succeeds in adding a few years to the normal span of life mankind will be repaid.

Waiting on Providence

Howard, said the visitor, are you going to be a minister, like your father, when you grow up?

No, ma'am, answered Howard, "I'm going to be a waiter."

Why? queried the surprised visitor. Cause, papa says that all things come to him who waits, was the reply.

Grand Old Man

The Maxloa who has just died at the alleged age of 185 has been pronounced (according to Amesbury News) during the past dozen years or so by a citizen of New Brunswick aged 185, and a comparative resident of Valley Mills, Texas, whose age was only 115.

The man in the street will be pardoned for thinking that the 185 has been inadvertently transposed from a record that was a fiction. Jenkins was probably Old Parr and Henry Jenkins will stand as the best authenticated instances of superlongevity.

The monument at Bolton (Yorkshire) records that Jenkins attained the amazing age of 169.

A man of eighty-six, observed Mr. Dooley recently, looks down on a man of eighty-five, and receives his callow opinions with a supercilious smile; and for that reason probably if not because he was a fellow man. Jenkins was able to give evidence on oath concerning matters 160 years or so previous.

As a hale young centurian he was in the habit of swimming the Swale with ease, and as a boy he is said to have taken a horse load of arrows to be forwarded north for the Battle of Flodden.

Relief for the Depressed.—Physical and mental depression usually have their origin in a disordered state of the stomach and liver, as when these organs are deranged in their action the whole system is affected. Try Paree's Vegetable Pills. They revive the digestive processes, act beneficially on the nerves and restore the spirits as no other pills will. They are cheap, simple and sure, and the effects are lasting.

The dinner thrust the tip of his knife into the yellow disc which the waiter had brought him. He held it up to the light and examined it while the waiter stood by anxiously. Then the diner resolutely returned the yellow disc to his plate and scraped some of it upon his bread.

I take them, he said, for butter or worse.

THE TRUE CAUSE OF RHEUMATISM

Due to Acid in the Blood—Can Only be Cured Through the Blood.

Not many years ago even doctors thought that rheumatism was only a local pain caused by exposure to cold or wet. Now they know that the trouble is caused by the blood becoming tainted with uric acid. This condition of the blood causes the muscles to contract, stiffens the joints and irritates the nerves. If not promptly treated the stiffness spreads and the pain grows worse until you are a helpless cripple, tortured day and night. If the disease touches the heart it means sudden death.

You cannot cure rheumatism, with liniments, plasters or hot cloths, as so many try to do. You must go right to the root of the trouble in the blood. The scientific way to cure rheumatism is to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which make new, rich blood that goes right to the root of the trouble. They sweep out the poisonous acid, loosen the aching joints and muscles and bring ease and freedom where before had been pain and misery.

Miss Beulah Shepper, Morpeth, Ont., says: "Following an attack of neuritis I took inflammatory rheumatism. My joints became swollen and the pain was almost unendurable. I consulted with two doctors, but the pain was only relieved while I was taking their medicine, and soon returned. For six months I continued to suffer in this way. Then I tried electric pads, but they failed to do me any good. Finally a friend persuaded me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I had not been taking them long before I found relief. I continued using the pills for a time and soon found myself in perfect health and feeling like a new person. I never lose an opportunity to recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as I cannot say enough in favor of them."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box of six boxes for $2.50 from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A restaurant keeper hung out this sign: Coffee; Such as Mother Used to Make.

One morning a man entered the cafe, and as the waiter approached him he inquired, pointing to the sign: Is your coffee really such as mother used to make?

Blairmore, Alta., Fri., Nov. 8, 1912

It is up to the sport-loving community to support and encourage the hockey team. It is generally the close-fisted groucher who sees the team's lackings, while the staunchest supporters pride most in their efforts.

Complaints about the present light system of east Blairmore are now in order, and the chairman of the light committee is puzzled to know which is easier, to keep clock of the hours the lights are on, or the hours they are off. Anyway, subscribers are paying for and entitled to a better service.

An attempt to boycott certain travelling opera companies through Alberta and B. C. is the latest matter to come to the knowledge of theatre-goers, and that such a feeling towards the producers of high-class educational entertainments exists is really to be regretted. It is hoped that parties to such a movement will see the error of their ways very soon, and that no barrier will be placed in the way of the travelling opera companies, since it is a fact that very few of the smaller towns of the provinces can produce the necessary local talent.

Blairmore School Report

The following is the report of the Blairmore public school for the month of October.

The school was in operation 22 days during the month. Total number of pupils enrolled for the month, 207.

Grade I, Part I—Number enrolled 41; aggregate attendance 638; average attendance 29; percentage of attendance 70.73; number of lates 20. Miss M. E. Moir, teacher.

Grade I, Part 2—Number enrolled 32; aggregate attendance 584; average attendance 26; percentage of attendance 81; number of lates 25; those neither absent nor tardy, Janette Thibadeau, Winnie Christopher, Catherine Lyon, James Nimrava, Tommy Miller, Elizabeth McLeod, Vernon Hunter, Arthur Boyd, Duncan Beard, Bertha M. Richardson, teacher.

Senior Grade I and II—Number enrolled 39; aggregate attendance 791; average attendance 85.95; percentage of attendance 92.17; number of lates 13; those neither absent nor tardy, Nora Shanett, Katie Moxin, George Lyon, Norma Robertson, Charlie Howe, Francis Stange, Lucy Hinds, Russell Vincent, Fred Nichols, Marion Ennis, Franklin Simpson, Handley, Julius Saber, Lillian Evans, Wilfred Dutil, Mabel Kafury, Lillie M. Perkins, teacher.

Grades III and IV—Number enrolled 47; aggregate attendance 9304; average attendance 42.29; percentage of attendance 89.97; lates, 15. Miss K. B. Barrach, teacher.

Grades V, VI and VII—Number enrolled 34; average attendance 9304; percentage of attendance 94.32; lates 10. Miss E. M. Fulton, teacher.

Grades VIII, IX and X—Number enrolled 14; aggregate attendance 289; average attendance 13.14; percentage of attendance 93.84; lates 15.

It will be seen that not one of the rooms has succeeded in winning the half holiday for November, while in three rooms the percentage of attendance has gone below ninety-one, which is the standard required by the department. We would again urge upon parents the advisability of seeing that their children attend regularly and punctually.

J. W. VERGE, Principal.

Allen Players Well Received

The Allen Players filled a three-nights' engagement at the Blairmore opera house last week, and without any exception their bills were the very best ever produced before a Pass audience. Their production of "The Girl from Texas" on Thursday night involved all that was possible in talent, and all the different characters performed excellent work.

On Friday the bill, "Neil Gwynne" was put on. In this Miss Felton proved at her best and the entire production was of the very highest character.

"Whose Baby are You?" drew a crowded house on Saturday night and needless to say no one left the theatre at all displeased for their attendance. The entire audience were kept in a state of rapture from beginning to end, and especially good were the impersonations of Mrs. P. R. Allen, Miss Felton, Miss Hudars and Walter Mylton, and the display of babies, all heirs to Blairmore, was unique.

The Allen Players carry with them the Royal Hungarian Sing Quartette, and their musical accomplishment is indeed worth the admission. Every one who attended the different shows speak in highest terms of the plays and the musical accompaniment and when the Allen Players make their next visit here in January or February next, they may feel assured of bumper houses.

Provincial Sunday School Convention

The work of the association is strictly interdenominational, and delegates from every evangelical Sunday school will be welcomed at the provincial convention.

Delegates are request to purchase a single fare ticket to Calgary, and to ask the ticket seller for a standard certificate, which will be presented at the convention office, validated and returned to the delegate, who will present it at the ticket office in Calgary, and secure a return ticket free.

Printers' Pi

The make-up men in a rural weekly newspaper office got full of hard cider a fortnight ago and mixed up items reporting an auction sale and a wedding ceremony. The description ran as follows:

"Charlie Blank the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Blank, was disposed of at public auction to Margaret Dash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dash, of lot four, sixth concession, in the presence of eighty guests, including two mules and nine head of horned cattle. Rev. J. Blanks tied the nuptial knot, averaging 1,200 pounds on the hoof.

"The beautiful home of the bride was very tastefully decorated with one net of harness, nearly new before the ceremony Mendelssohn's wedding march was given by twenty-one five year old milk cows, looking perfectly charming in a light spring wagon, top lower, open buggy and wheelbarrow. The groom is a well-known young man, popular in society circles of about thirty eight Berkshire hogs, while the bride is an accomplished and talented teacher of a drove of Poland china shags, pedigree furnished if desired.

Among the many presents were one hundred bushels of potatoes, one drag harrow, bay fork, rope and pulleys, and other articles too numerous to mention.

Happenings in and Around Blairmore

M. Bosally of Homer, B. C., was in town this week.

W. C. Robinson was in town from Cowley last week end.

D.J. Elmer, Victoria, B.C., spent several days in town this week. Remember the meeting at Wonderland theatre on Sunday Nov 10 at 9.15 p.m.

We are pleased to report that Miss Frayer is fast recovering from her recent accident, and will very soon be about again.

The Allen Players left for Lethbridge Sunday night, where they have an engagement of eight nights at the Morris theatre.

Mrs. Martin, sister of Thomas Frayer, arrived from Winnipeg the early part of the week, to spend a short while with her brother.

W. A. Beebe returned on Monday night from Calgary whither he had been on business in connection with the proposed street railway.

The work of brick-venering the Blairmore opera house commenced this week. It is hoped to have the work completed before the setting in of severe weather.

C. Bryce Miller has circulated bills this week, announcing a big auction sale of farming utensils, horses, etc., to be held at Cowley on Saturday, the 18th inst.

See the special offer of a complete Satin-wood dining room set in the window of the Blairmore Furniture Store. Regular price is $117.00; this week only $100.00 for cash.

Edwin Stokely, charged with the murder of his brother, Frederick Stokely, at Milk River, in July last, was convicted at the Lethbridge assizes last week, and sentenced to hang on January 24th 1913.

Rev. J. Maclean Beaton, who for the past several months has had charge of the Presbyterian mission work in Blairmore, left this week for northern points. We understand that Mr. Beaton has declined to accept the call to the parish here.

The work of brick-venering the Budd hall is about completed, and the front of the building has been given a finishing coat of paint, which is indeed a decided improvement. The brick work was done under the supervision of contractor Pozzi.

We like to boost a bit whenever an opportunity offers, but shun the idea of exaggeration. The Greenwood Ledge (through a typographical error, of course) in commenting on the introduction of the Keystone Cement Co. into Blairmore, made the statement that the plant would have a daily capacity of "1500 tons."

A special feature "Odyssey of Homer" was the attraction at the opera house on Tuesday night. The "Odyssey" represents the most wonderful achievements in moving pictures, and was secured for Blairmore at considerable expense.

The police had their hands full (and occasionally their arms full) on Saturday night last. The corners of the cage were so well filled at times that some of the birds were allowed liberty to hike for a less dry quarters, upon forfeit of a few "bits."

Remember the services in the Central Baptist church next Sunday. The morning subject will be "The Successful Way." The evening subject "The Good News." The subject at the Wonderland Theatre "The Golden Hopes of Men." The meeting at Wonderland theatre will begin at 9.15 p.m., and will be short and bright.

The bridal party left on yesterday morning's boat on an extended trip, six months on approved joint note, four percent off for cash.

PILED IN THE PILLS.

Samuel Jessup swallowed 228,934 in Twenty Years.

People were greatly addicted to patent medicines 100 years ago, and a case that was tried in 1817 in England gives some idea of the pill taking proclivities of the time. An apothecary sued one Samuel Jessup for payment of a long standing account. The pill extended to 873-dry closely written columns, and showed that in twenty years he took 228,934 pills, beginning with the modest number of twenty-nine a day and advancing by easy stages to a daily consumption of seventy-eight. During this same period he consumed 40,000 bottles of mixtures, balm, juleps, electuaries and other infallible specifics. The apothecary won the day, but Jessup died soon afterward at the age of sixty-five, no doubt from stopping the medicine.

In the advertisement of their wares the eighteenth century quack medicine proprietors were quite as resourceful as the modern representatives of their craft. Newberry, the proprietor of "Dr. Jauncy's Powder," was a publisher and managed to make one branch of his business help the other by inducing his authors—including Goldsmith—to send references to his powders throughout the pages of their books.

Thus, in "Daddy Two Shoes," the hero's father "perished miserably" because so unfortunate as to be "sick with a fever in a place where Dr. Jauncy's powder was to be had."—Chicago News.

PRICKLY PEARS.

Eat Them as Indians Do if You Like Their Peculiar Flavor.

Nobody but an Indian knows how to eat a prickly pear. The fruit grows on the edge of a thick green leaf and bristles with upright, closely set thorns, sharp as needles and fine as hairs. Though they cannot be seen with the naked eye, they certainly be felt, as any one who has tried the usual method of picking them with a pocket handkerchief can testify. The fine thorns penetrate the fingers, and the flesh swells, festers, becomes inflamed and, if neglected, often develops into a serious case of blood poisoning.

When an Indian wants to eat it he cuts a small stick, sharpens it and thrusts the point into the ripe fruit. Slicing off the pear with a sharp knife and holding it on the stick, he takes the pear to avoid touching the rind with his fingers. He drops the peel on the ground to the bitter sorrow of any barefoot boy who happens to step on it.

A liking for cactus fruit may be acquired, like the taste for olives, but it is not likely to rival the cantaloupe or even the humble grapefruit in popular favor. It resembles cracked walnut shells mottled with green, mixed with sand and cork and sprinkled with brown sugar, a little lemon juice and a dash of quinine. Any one who tastes it once is entitled to let the Indians gather the entire crop.—New York Press.

Why Should I Use Cuticura Soap?

"There is nothing the matter with my skin, and I thought Cuticura Soap was only for skin troubles." True, it is for skin troubles, but its great mission is to prevent skin troubles. For more than a generation its delicate emollient and prophylactic properties have rendered it the standard for this purpose, while its extreme purity and refreshing fragrance give to it all the advantages of the best of toilet soaps. It is also invaluable in keeping the hands soft and white, the hair live and glossy, and the scalp free from dandruff and irritation.

While its first cost is a few cents more than that of ordinary toilet soaps, it is prepared with such care and of such materials, that it wears to a wafer, often outlasting several cakes of other soap, and making its use, in practice, most economical. Cuticura Soap is sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, but the truth of these claims may be demonstrated without cost by sending to "Cuticura," Dept. 7M, Boston, U.S.A., for a liberal sample cake, together with a thirty-two page book on the skin and hair.

ILLITERACY IN OUR LAND.

Census Statistics Show That it is on the Decline.

The census statistics of illiteracy for 1910, now published, are very encouraging, while leaving much to be desired. In every section of the country the proportion of those ten years of age and over who cannot write, which is the census test of illiteracy, has been reduced since 1900. It has fallen from 24.9 to 17.4 per cent in the most illiterate section, the east-north-western states. It has fallen from 4.1 to 2.9 per cent in the most literate section, the west-north central states. It has fallen from 10.7 to 7.9 per cent for the whole country.

New York, with its great flood of immigration, stands as in 1900 with 51.9 per cent of illiteracy. Massachusetts, also handicapped in this way, has made a reduction from 5.9 to 5.2 per cent. Connecticut alone of all the states has lost ground, its illiteracy proportion now being 6.2 against 5.9 per cent in 1900.

Illinois still leads in illiteracy, as in 1900, but the proportion is cut from 38.5 to 29 per cent, while Iowa, which tied with Nebraska for first place in illiteracy in 1900, now leads Nebraska and all the other states with a proportion of 11.7.

If immigration affects adversely the standing of the northwestern states the negro population still holds back the south. But even here there is noteworthy advance. Over 61 per cent of Louisiana's colored population ten years old and more was illiterate in 1900; now the proportion is 48.4. The reduction of negro illiteracy since 1900 in the south Atlantic states has been from 47.1 to 32.5 per cent, in the east south central from 49.2 to 34.8 per cent, in the west south central from 55 to 33.1 per cent.—New York World.

SPANKING BAD KOREANS.

Official Rules Under Which the Punishment is Applied.

The Official Gazette contains an administrative order giving minute directions as to the method of application of corporal punishment in the Korean peninsula.

The culprit shall lie on his stomach, his hands stretched out above his head and fastened. Straps are to be passed around the body and round the knee joints and arms, with the clothes so arranged as to expose the hips.

The executioner shall stand with his whip at arm's length, the tip protruding three inches over the edge of the prisoner's body. The executioner's left hand shall be on his left side, palm upward, and right foot in advance and bearing the weight of the body.

The stroke is to be delivered perpendicularly, and the skin is under no circumstances to be broken. The punishment is to be inflicted one hour after a meal, and the prisoner, if he requires refreshment during the operation, shall be given a drink of fresh water.

The order has put the Tokyo press with an opportunity for displaying its wit. It is suggested that Mr. Yamamoto, minister of finance, might obtain something covering the deficit in the budget by making the spectacle a public one at a charge of a penny a head for spectators.—London Post.

Telephone For Deaf Mutes.

An electrical device called a "deaf mutes' telephone" has been invented to enable those who cannot speak or hear to communicate rapidly with each other. The "phone" comprises an electrical keyboard, somewhat like that of a typewriter. This keyboard is connected by wire with an electric signal board, which is the "talking machine" proper, and consists of thirty-six incandescent light globes, each with a large letter on it. The user of the machine depresses one of the keys, and the globe corresponding to the letter he wishes to talk presses the key, spelling out the words as on a typewriter. The other person reading off the letters as they flash on the lamps.—London Globe.

German Naval Reserve.

Various proposals are under consideration for building up a German naval reserve, and one which finds much favor with the authorities is to establish a special naval reserve service of seven years, during which 33,000 men comprising the force would be obliged to go abroad with the active fleet for not less than four and a half months annually. It is argued that, though this would be expensive, the cost could be defrayed by calling out new recruits a month later every year.—Shipping Illustrated.

Sheep Eat Sheep.

Even the sheep at the antipodes have developed the cannibalistic habit, according to a Melbourne newspaper. They have taken to attacking and eating each other as well as rabbits, which are still very numerous in Australia in spite of the prodigious quantities of them that are trapped, tinned and exported. So far the phenomenon of the cannibalistic sheep has not been noticed outside the southern district of New South Wales, but the news will doubtless soon spread.

Alligator Skin.

The alligator skin business of the world is controlled by a firm in New York, N. Y., which buys 80 to 90 per cent of the American production. It is significant that the sudden supply of 30,000 alligator skins a year from Colombia finds such a ready market in the United States that they have invariably been purchased upon arrival at New York on presentation of the shipping documents even before unloading the cargo.

Human Hair-Nets.

The annual sale of nets of human hair, according to the report of the American Consul at Kehl, is estimated at 12,000,000.

Hair-nets are made almost wholly in the houses of Alsatian and Austrian peasants; the peculiar skill required to net hair has become in part hereditary.

The children begin first to tie the hairs together, and to make the net one long hair. Then with only a round piece of wood about six, long and 1.5 inch in diameter and a needle the older girls and women—and sometimes the men—weave the nets. Each mesh is knotted in much the same way that fish-nets or hammocks are made. Only tying a single hair in a more delicate and difficult task than tying a string.

To make a dozen nets is a day's work of ten or twelve hours.

Some of the farmers in Western Canada are complaining that not enough men are coming from the east to help them in harvesting their crops. They blame the railways in part for this, on the ground that the excursion rates are too high. Now the fare from Montreal to Winnipeg is $10, and to Edmonton and to other points it is proportionately as low. Do the kickers expect the railways to carry the workers for nothing?—Montreal Gazette.

Following the Hounds.

Smith was a great cyclist, but had rarely been on a horse. One day when staying with a sporting uncle he thought he would like to follow the hounds, which were to meet near by, so he borrowed from a young relative a horse which was not much accustomed to the hunting field. At first he went steadily until the horse, being started by a rabbit darting from a clump of grass, broke into a mad gallop. The rider was flung forward on the horse's neck.

What are you doing, my lad, with your arm there? jokingly called out his uncle.

I'm feeling for the brake, was the muffled reply, but I can't find it.

Proud of it. The old-age pension officer had a magnificent sense of his own importance, and questioned the old lady with a zeal that would have done credit to the reporter in search of a "coop."

Now, he proceeded, drawing himself up to his full height of nearly five feet, tell me this—Have you ever been in receipt of parish relief? Never, answered the applicant. Yes, have you at any time been in the hands of the police? The lady hung her head, and the officer smiled as much as to say, Got you.

Come, on come on; tell me the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, he commanded, fixing the woman with his steely eye.

Well, replied the applicant, I don't see that either you or the Government have any business to know, but I don't deny it. Girls will be girls, you know. But still, proudly—he was a sergeant.

Cheapest of all Oils.—Considering the curative qualities of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil it is the cheapest of all preparations offered to the public. It is to be found in every drug store in Canada from coast to coast and all houses merchants keep it for sale. So being easily procurable and extremely moderate in price, no one should be without a bottle of it.

An Elephant's Bath. The elephant's bath taken a week to carry out in every detail. It requires the services of three men and costs about $50.

When the bathing is necessary for a circus elephant and if the animal is a valuable one the proprietor of the circus does not consider the money wasted. The first process consists in going over the immense body with the best soap procurable. A lb. of soap is used, and the elephant's ears are especially carefully attended to.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury. As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely ruin the mucous membrane, such ointments are a great danger to the patient. Look for reliable physicians, as the danger they take in applying such ointments is great. Dr. Clark's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by Dr. J. C. Clark, contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the system, and is the only remedy that will cure catarrh of the bladder, urethra, etc., without causing any pain. Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c per bottle. Take this Fish Liver Oil for constipation.

In illustration of the dreary Glasgow Monday, a lecturer told this story of the late Mr. J. L. Toole. He was leaving his hotel in Glasgow one fine Sunday morning, when the sun was shining brightly. As he was strolling along George Square a policeman eyed him suspiciously, and at last approached and said—

Ye had better tak' care, sir, what ye're doing.

What am I doing? Inquired Toole, and added, with a merry wink: Why I'm noddin' but.

No, replied the Glasgowian, in solemn and reproving tones, but ye're noddin' almost as happy as I at we're Monday.

In the treatment of summer complaints the most effective remedy that can be used is Dr. J. D. Kellogg's "Bicarbonate Cordial." It is a standard preparation, and many people enjoy it in preference to other preparations. It is a highly concentrated medicine and its sedative and curative qualities are beyond question. It has been a popular medicine for many years and thousands can attest its superior qualities in overcoming dysentery and kindred complaints.

No, I don't notice any difference, said the umbrella dealer.

But you get better prices when it rains, don't you?

Why should I?

The wheat upon a thousand hills, A thousand valleys floors, Is heaped in mellow richness where The sun of August pours.

Far as the wondering eye can see The yellow stacks and golden sheaves, And melt against the distant blue Where sky and mountain blend.

The pointed ears stand guard above The wealth poured at their feet, And still it notes o'er the land The wheat and wheat and wheat.

O yellow wheat, you take your way To distant lands and far; To teeming cities, foreign shores, Where hungry millions are.

But are you so to feed a world, Let me your beauty see, One moment with your beauty feed The heart and mind of man.

More About The Loading Platform

The present generation of Western farmers will never know the difficulties and vexations experienced by their predecessors in the earlier years when no one could get a carload of grain shipped in bulk except by loading it through an elevator. The system forced the majority of farmers to sell their grain to the elevator owners at arbitrary prices, and oft times to submit to heavy dockage and other annoyances, causing continual dissatisfaction. Now however the distribution of grain is as fast by the Grain Act, and the use of the loading platform, provide facilities which enable the farmer to secure satisfactory treatment in the disposal of his grain, and the highest market prices at time of sale. Every farmer therefore, should make and use elevator to use the loading platform in shipping his grain to the terminal elevators. It is the safeguard of the farmer's freedom in disposing of his grain to the best advantage for himself. If farmers refrain from using the loading platform freely, it might result in its being done away with, because railway companies and elevator owners are strongly opposed to it. It is easy to understand why elevator people desire the loading platform abolished. The railway people on their part say it delays the loading of cars and helps to cause car shortage. This we know to be nonsense, because frequently after cars are loaded whether with grain, coal or other merchandise, they are often delayed for days and even weeks instead of being promptly moved forward to destination. It is engine shortage and shortage of competent train men that mostly cause car delays on railways and lack of cars. Let every farmer therefore, do all he can to use a loading platform and become an independent shipper. In subsequent advertisements we will state in detail the savings and other advantages of direct loading into cars compared with loading through elevators.

We handle the farmers grain strictly on commission, make liberal advances on car bills of lading, supervise the grading at time cars are inspected, secure the highest prices at time of sale and make prompt returns when sold. Write us for shipping instructions and market information.

One Link Missing. Reporter—I believe that's about all, colonel. O, by the way, how did our grandfather get his start in business? Col. Kneemo (candidate for congress)—I haven't the least idea, young man, but if there was anything disreputable about it some of my biographers will print the story before our campaign is over. Good morning.

Secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture was talking on the Maresianais about the record crops of 1912.

These wonderful crops, he said, are almost enough to make you believe the croakings of the pessimists.

A farmer, you know, sent his hired man to a neighbor's with a note, saying: Friend Smith—Will you please lend me your crosscut saw, as I wish to cut a watermelon up, so as to get it into my drey?

The neighbor wrote back: Friend Jones—I would be glad to lend you my saw, but same has just got stuck in a cantaloupe.

Young man, said the father of a bright boy, this school report of yours is very unsatisfactory. I don't like it.

I told teacher I didn't think you would repeat the little fellow, but she was too contrary to change it.

The meetings of Local 431, U. M. W. of A. will henceforth be held on the first, third and fifth Monday nights in the month, to commence at 7:30 p.m. instead of Sunday mornings as formerly.

The Leap Year dance given by the ladies in the socialist hall on Halloween night was a big success. Men were admitted free, and of course they were all there. The charge placed upon ladies did not keep them away. The Bellevue orchestra supplied music.

Bellevue mine was closed down for two days last week over a dispute between Local 431 and the mine management over the discharge of two men because of a dispute which they had with one of the fire-boosters. After a conference between the officials on both sides, the dispute was amicably settled and work was resumed on Saturday morning.

The boys of the town celebrated Halloween by making themselves, as usual, a general nuisance, and they are able to take lots of fun out of that fact, which goes to show that still boys will be boys. Many a good housewife who found

City Planning Convention

There is to be a city planning convention held in Edmonton on November 15th and 16th. Mayor George Armstrong, of Edmonton, is vice-president of the city planning and housing association of Canada and it is through his initiative that the convention has been called.

Every city and town in Alberta has been invited to send delegates to the convention and at large attendance is expected and particularly desired since the convention energies will be strongly directed toward securing legislation that will enable cities and towns to control the disposition of land and buildings in and about the several communities in such a manner as will lend itself to growth along good lines. Such legislation as this has been adopted by Nova Scotia and New Brunswick and, to some extent, by Ontario. A bill looking toward a like end is being prepared by the city planning commission of Winnipeg and the Edmonton convention will take up its work with all of this as a guide.

The proposition is an important one particularly at a time when so many Alberta cities and towns are in a formative stage and where so much of future development along economical and thoroughly good lines depends upon what is done now.

big clothes line down or onthous dumped the next morning took conferring the fact that perhaps "when we become men we will put away childish things."

A branch of Department of Extension of Alberta University was organized in Frank on Tuesday night. Rev. W. T. Young was elected president, H. D. Mackay, secretary, and Messrs E. Atcheson, S. Patton and F. Allot as committee. Both this branch and the skating rink will be conducted by Young Men's Club. The subject for debate at the first regular meeting on Thursday night next will be "Woman Suffrage," and a good time is expected.

Coleman Notes

The Lord Bishop of Calgary will be in Coleman on Sunday next and administer the sacrament of confirmation at the 11 a. m. service at St. Alban's church. His Lordship will also preach at night service.

Work on the new parish hall in connection with St. Alban's church is progressing well under the supervision of the rector, Rev. D. Watkins-Jones. It is hoped to have the building ready for use as a reading room, etc., by the end of the year.
